

Unit 4 – Listening EX.3

Hello.

You will hear a person talking about their daily life, work, and travel.

My name is Laura.

I'm twenty-nine years old, and I live in a small town about twenty minutes from the city.

I don't live near the city centre.

My home is in a quiet area, not far from a main road.

There are some shops near my house, and a bus stop at the end of the street.

I work in a hotel near the city centre.

Because I live quite far from my workplace, I have to leave home early every weekday.

On weekdays, I usually wake up at quarter past six.

I don't get up later than that because my job starts early.

After I wake up, I have a shower and get dressed.

Then I have breakfast at home.

I usually eat something simple, like toast or cereal, and I drink coffee.

I leave my house at seven thirty.

First, I walk to the bus stop near my home.

It takes me about five minutes to get there.

I usually wait for the bus for a few minutes.

When the bus arrives, I get on and travel into the city.

The journey takes about forty minutes, depending on the traffic.

Sometimes the bus is very busy, especially in the morning.

I usually arrive at work just before nine o'clock.

If the traffic is bad, I arrive a little later, but not often.

At work, I have different tasks during the day.

I work at the reception desk in the hotel.

I talk to customers, answer questions, and help people check in.

I also answer the phone and work on a computer.

In the morning, I usually have a short break.

During the break, I drink water or coffee.

I don't eat lunch at the same place every day.

Some days, I eat lunch in the hotel café with my colleagues.

On other days, I bring food from home and eat it at work.

I don't have a long lunch break, so I eat quickly and then go back to work.

In the afternoon, my work is usually busier.

More people arrive at the hotel, and I speak to many customers.

I finish work at half past five.

After work, I usually go straight home because I feel tired.

In the evening, I don't go out during the week.

When I get home, I make dinner and relax.

I sometimes watch TV or read.

Other evenings, I talk to my family or friends on the phone.

I usually go to bed before eleven o'clock because I wake up early the next day.

At the weekend, my routine is different.

I don't wake up early, and I don't travel to the city.

On Saturday, I often go shopping or meet friends.

On Sunday, I usually stay at home and relax.

I like my job, but I also enjoy my free time at the weekend.

That's my daily life.
