

U04: My Town

Audio Script

Hello, and welcome.

In this listening, you will hear about my town and the people who live here.

I live in a busy town in Saudi Arabia. My town is modern and friendly.

There are many shops, cafés, and mosques.

People are kind and helpful.

In the morning, people wake up early for Fajr prayer.

After that, some people go back to sleep, and others start their day.

Many people check their phone. They read messages and check the weather.

Later, people leave their homes.

Many people drive their cars to work or college.

The streets are busy in the morning.

Some people work in offices. They sit at a desk and use computers.

They send emails and have meetings.

Other people work in shops or cafés and help customers.

At midday, people stop working for a short time.

Some people go to Dhuhr prayer.

Others eat lunch with friends or colleagues.

Lunch is simple, like rice, chicken, or sandwiches.

In the afternoon, students and trainees study.

They learn new skills and use technology.

Phones and laptops are important for work and study.

In the evening, people finish work and relax.

Families meet at home.

Many people go to cafés or malls with friends.
