

Unit 11 EX.1

Objective: Can understand basic factual statements.

Sarah: So, Tim, you live in Rio de Janeiro in Brazil. There are many beaches there, aren't there?

Tim: Yes, that's right. There are lots of beautiful beaches all over Brazil.

Sarah: What about holidays? Do you usually stay in Brazil for your holidays?

Tim: Yes, I stay in Brazil, but I don't stay in Rio. I always leave the city. The beaches in Rio are very busy.

Sarah: So where did you go for your last holiday?

Tim: I went to a beach in the northeast of Brazil, in the state of Ceará. It was a very quiet and beautiful place.

Sarah: That sounds nice. When did you go there?

Tim: I went in February last year.

Sarah: And who did you go with?

Tim: I went with my family—my wife and our two children.

Sarah: And how did you travel?

Tim: The journey was quite long. First, we travelled by plane from Rio to Fortaleza. That took about three or four hours.

Sarah: Wow, that is a long flight!

Tim: Yes, Brazil is very big. After that, we went by bus to a small town, and then we took another bus to the beach.

Sarah: You must have been tired. Where did you stay?

Tim: We stayed in a very small hotel near the beach. It only had a few rooms. Our room was simple but comfortable, with two beds, a small bathroom, and a balcony with a sea view.

Sarah: That sounds lovely. What did you do during your holiday?

Tim: We spent most of our time relaxing. We went swimming, walked along the beach, and ate in small restaurants. The fish was delicious. One day, I also went to the city centre. I visited a few museums there and took lots of photos.

Sarah: That sounds interesting. Did you enjoy your holiday?

Tim: It was tiring but enjoyable. I'd love to come back again.
